

COLLEGE OF HEALTHCARE
INFORMATION MANAGEMENT
EXECUTIVES
EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Introduction

In 2007, the College of Healthcare Information Management Executives (CHIME) created the CHIME Education Foundation as a charitable organization to support the educational development of the next generation of healthcare IT leaders. The Education Foundation provides scholarships and tuition for attendance at a variety of educational conferences and events, and supports the development and education of current and future CIOs.

Scholarships Awarded

2008 was a year of expansion for the CHIME Education Foundation. 16 scholarships were awarded in 8 categories, including 2 new named scholarships and a new CIO Scholarship for women. Congratulations to this year's scholarship winners:

Healthcare CIO Boot Camp Minority Scholarship:

Jim Francis, Technical Services Director, Halifax Health
Kunle Obafemi, Senior Systems Analyst, Community Health Network

Women's Healthcare CIO Boot Camp Scholarship:

Karen Green, CIO, Brooks Health System
Jane Maskus, CIO, Lawrence Memorial Hospital

John Glaser Scholarship:

Mona Baggett, Deputy CIO & Chief Technology Officer, VA Health Administration Center

CHIME-Health Forum Fellowships:

Kathleen Dickman, Director of IT, Decatur County Memorial Hospital
Sharon T. Phelps, Director of Information Systems, West Park Hospital District
Tressa Springmann, VP & Chief Information Officer, Greater Baltimore Medical Center
Gretchen Tegethoff, CIO, George Washington University Hospital

Richard A. Correll Scholarship:

Robert Curee, CIO, Southeast Regional Medical Command

Peter A. Strombom Scholarship:

Keith Robison. CIO, WCA Hospital

Healthcare CIO Boot Camp Alumni Scholarship:

Robert Eardley, Division Information Officer, University Hospitals Health System
Diatta Harris, Director of IT, Erickson Retirement Communities
Nanda Lahoud, Admin. Director - Value Realization, Texas Health Resources

CHIME Edge Scholarship:

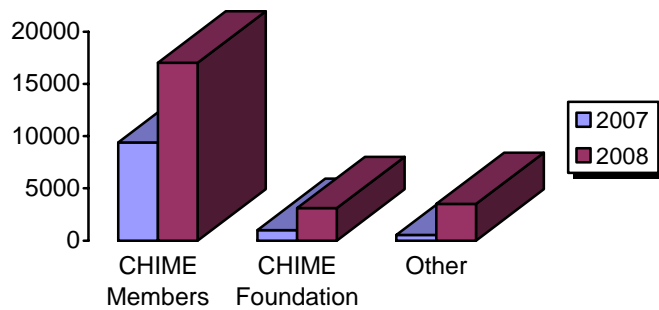

Carol Roosa, Chief Information Officer, Monadnock Community Hospital

CHIME Women's CIO Scholarship:

Bridget Haggerty, Interim CIO, Oregon Health & Sciences University

Donations

Donations to the CHIME Education Foundation increased from $10,950 from individual and corporate donors in 2007 to $23,970 in 2008. Donations from CHIME members increased from $9,400 in 2007 to $17,030 in 2008. Other sources of support included CHIME Foundation firms and other CHIME partners and associates. A list of donors may be viewed here: <http://www.chimeeducationfoundation.org/ourdonors.asp>

Sources of Support: CHIME Education Foundation

Sources of support for the CHIME Education Foundation include CHIME members, CHIME Foundation firms, and other CHIME Education Foundation partners and associates. Additionally, the CHIME Education Foundation received a generous donation from the AHA and Health Forum to fund the CHIME-Health Forum Fellowships for 2007-2008.

Looking Ahead

We look forward to the year ahead as we continue to work to improve and expand our programs and services. We have already received a commitment from a generous donor to provide our very first endowed scholarship. We also have received a commitment from the AHA and Health Forum to continue their support of the CHIME-Health Forum Fellowships. Look for more information to be released soon about both of these exciting developments.

Board Oversight

Board oversight is provided by a group of 4 individuals with special interest in supporting and promoting CIO education. The bylaws of the CHIME Education specify that the Board shall consist of 3 members who are past Trustees of the CHIME Board and 1 member on the current CHIME Board of Trustees. Our thanks to the 2008 CHIME Education Foundation Board:

Susan Schade
 Chair
 Brigham and Women's Hospital
 •••
 Russell P. Branzell

Poudre Valley Health System

• • •

Kent L. Gale

KLAS Enterprises, LLC

• • •

Patricia C. Skarulis

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center

Our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all of those who donated their funds, time, or energy to the CHIME Education Foundation over the past year as we work to continue our support of the CIO profession.

For more information about the CHIME Education Foundation, visit www.chimeeducationfoundation.org.